Critical Illness 1.0

Colonial Life's individual Specified Critical Illness 1.0 insurance helps your employees and their families maintain financial security during the lengthy, expensive recovery period of a critical illness. It provides a lump sum benefit to help with the out-of–pocket medical and non-medical expenses of employees who suffer a critical illness.

Benefits are paid directly to the covered person unless they specify otherwise.

As the employer, you may choose one of the following plan types to offer to your employees.
• Critical Illness
• Critical Illness with Health Screening

An employee can choose to add cancer as a covered condition for additional premium.

Coverage is available to: Employee; Spouse (as the named insured); Employee and Spouse; Employee and Dependent Children; Spouse and Dependent Children; and Employee, Spouse and Dependent Children.

Face amounts for the employee range from $5,000 -$100,000 (amounts greater than $75,000 require underwriting approval), in $1,000 increments. Spouse coverage (as a named insured) is available in face amounts from $5,000 to $40,000. If a spouse is covered under the employee's plan, their face amount is 50% of the employee's coverage. If dependent child(ren) are covered, their face amount is 25% of the named insured's coverage.

Benefits

Critical Illness benefits

Benefits are paid as a lump-sum payment for the following specified critical illness when the covered person is diagnosed:

100% of face amount per covered person
- Heart Attack (Myocardial Infarction)
- Stroke
- Major Organ Failure
- End Stage Renal (Kidney) Failure
